RESOLUTION OF THE PARK COUNTY REPUBLICAN PARTY

Designating June as Wyoming Faith and Family Month

WHEREAS, the Park County Republican Party affirms that faith and family are the foundational pillars of strong, moral, and self-reliant communities; and

WHEREAS, the Christian Judeo heritage that shaped Wyoming's founding principles and the Wyoming Constitution recognizes the family as the first and most important institution ordained by God for the nurture and upbringing of children; and

WHEREAS, the traditional family of one husband and one wife united in marriage, together raising their biological, adopted, or fostered children, has proven to be the most stable and effective environment for raising the next generation of responsible, productive citizens; and

WHEREAS, strong families built on faith produce children who are more likely to succeed in school, avoid destructive behaviors, and contribute positively to their communities; and

WHEREAS, fathers and mothers each play irreplaceable and complementary roles in the healthy development of children, and honoring both strengthens the entire family unit; and

WHEREAS, it is fitting and proper for communities to intentionally celebrate and reinforce the values of faith and family that have sustained Wyoming for generations;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Park County Republican Party that the month of June of every year is hereby designated as Wyoming Faith and Family Month; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Park County Republican Party encourages all residents, places of worship, faith-based organizations, businesses, schools, and community groups to observe this month by:

- Participating in activities that promote family unity, faith, and traditional values; and
- Supporting policies and community efforts that uphold the central role of the family in Wyoming society.
