BYLAWS OF THE REPUBLICAN PARTY OF THE COUNTY OF PARK, STATE OF WYOMING

Adopted by the Park County Republican Party on June 4, 2026

Preamble

The Park County Republican Party operating under the authority of the Wyoming Republican Party is a private, voluntary association of its members, exercising rights of free speech and association protected by the First and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution. Pursuant to the Supremacy Clause of the U.S. Constitution (Art. VI, Cl. 2) the Party possesses the absolute and exclusive right to determine its own leadership, define its own organizational structure, select its standard-bearers, and articulate its own message. These Bylaws, as adopted and amended by the members of the Party, shall be the sole and final authority for all Party governance.

Article I - The Park County Republican Party

I Section 1. Membership.

The Wyoming Republican Party shall be composed of all registered Republicans in the State of Wyoming. The Park County Republican Party shall be composed of all registered Republicans in Park County, Wyoming. The County Central Committees and the State Central Committee shall be composed of such members, selected in such a manner, as the Party shall determine in these Bylaws

I Section 2. Governance.

I 2.1. The Delegates at the County Convention of the Park County Republican Party shall be the governing body of the Party. At all other times the County Central Committee shall be the governing body.

I 2.2. At no time will any body of the Park County Republican Party meet in any venue that denies the individual the rights guaranteed by the 2nd Amendment of the US Constitution and Article 1, Section 24 of the Wyoming Constitution.

I Section 3. Role.

The role of the Park County Republican Party is: to recruit citizens to join the Republican Party; to establish the Platform of the Wyoming Republican Party; to achieve the election of Republican candidates who substantially uphold the platform of the Wyoming Republican Party and to conduct the business of the Park County Republican Party(Park 1); and promote-advocate for Republican Platform principles in our communities and Electees.

I Section 4. Candidate Endorsement & Financial Sovereignty.

The Wyoming Republican Party, through its State and County Central Committees, reserves the absolute First Amendment right to endorse, support, oppose, and provide financial assistance to candidates of its choosing at any point in the election cycle, including prior to a primary election. The Party's decisions regarding the use of its private funds and the content of its political speech are core associational activities. Any state law or administrative rule purporting to limit, restrict, or prohibit this private advocacy is hereby declared unconstitutional and void.

Article II - Procedure and Definitions

II Section 1. Parliamentary Authority.

The rules contained in the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised shall govern the Park County Republican Party in all cases to which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with these bylaws and any special rules of order the Park County Republican Party may adopt.

II Section 2. Dispute Resolution Process.

The Wyoming Republican Party hereby ratifies the Special Rules Related to Dispute Resolution Process adopted by the State Central Committee at its January 2022 meeting, revised at the April 25, 2026, Convention and hereby incorporates the same, with amendments, into its Bylaws as follows:

II 2.1. Applicability and Preliminary Review.

In the event of a dispute involving any of the following person or entities, the matter shall first be submitted to the Investigation Committee for preliminary review and disposition as appropriate. Any dispute or portion of a dispute that remains unresolved, or that the investigation committee determines is appropriate for alternative resolution, shall then be referred to the Dispute Resolution Committee in accordance with the procedures set forth.

II 2.1.a. Wyoming Republican Party and one or more State Central Committee members, unless that dispute has been or will be referred to the Investigation Committee; or

II 2.1.b. Wyoming Republican Party and one or more County Central Committees; or

II 2.1.c. Any two or more Republican Party entities or members or delegates of those entities, whether they be county or State entities, a central committee or convention.

II 2.1.d. No party may bring a dispute before the State Party without standing. Standing shall be defined as a condition wherein the disputing party can show connection to, and demonstrate actual harm from, the action in dispute.

II 2.2. Negotiation.

In the event of any dispute arising among any two or more of the parties described above, the parties shall use their best efforts to settle the dispute by direct negotiations between the parties, either before or concurrently with preliminary review by the Investigation Committee.

II 2.3. Mediation.

If the dispute is not settled promptly through negotiation, the parties shall submit the dispute to the Dispute Resolution Committee. The Dispute Resolution Committee shall consist of no less than five (5), nor more than nine (9), members of the Wyoming Republican Party's State Central Committee from different counties appointed by the State Chairman and ratified by a majority of the State Central Committee

II 2.4. Arbitration Proceedings and Recommendation.

If mediation before the Dispute Resolution Committee does not resolve the dispute, the Dispute Resolution Committee shall conduct arbitration proceedings in an informal, non-trial format, not consistent with the Federal Arbitration Act and shall prepare a written recommendation setting forth its findings of fact and proposed resolution. All parties shall be given the opportunity to be represented at the proceedings.

II 2.5. Final Determination by the State Central Committee.

The written recommendation of the Dispute Resolution Committee shall be submitted to the State Central Committee in Executive Session. After review and deliberation, the State Central Committee shall adopt, modify, or the recommendation and shall issue the final and binding decision of the Wyoming Republican Party on the matter. This decision shall constitute the full, final, and unappealable judgment of the Party.

II 2.6. Confidentiality.

All parties and witnesses during any and all proceedings of the Dispute Resolution Committee agree to keep confidential all information provided and shall be required to sign the SCC's Confidentiality Agreement before participating in any Dispute Resolution Committee proceedings. Failure to keep information confidential or to abide by the agreement shall be disciplined by the SCC and/or may be referred to the Investigation Committee. Further, all documents and other information submitted to the Dispute Resolution Committee, including any transcript of the proceedings, shall be confidential and shall not be disclosed to anyone other than the parties and The State Central Committee in Executive Session.(Park 2) Any modifications to the SCC Confidentiality Agreement must be expressly noticed to all parties and initialed by all parties to be valid.

II 2.7 Fees.

The parties to the dispute shall each pay the Wyoming Republican Party for their proportionate share of the travel expenses and fees of the Dispute Resolution Committee members incurred associated with all meetings and proceedings of the Dispute Resolution Committee but shall otherwise bear their own expenses.

II 2.8. Representation.

In accordance with Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised (RONR), any party may be represented before the Dispute Resolution Committee by any one member of the State Central Committee, subject to the SCC Confidentiality Agreement, whether or not that member is an attorney, as permitted by RONR. No person who is not a current member of the State Central Committee may appear as an attorney or other representative for any party during Dispute Resolution Committee proceedings.

II 2.9. Committee Counsel.

The Dispute Resolution Committee may, at its discretion, consult with Wyoming Republican Party's legal counsel and the current Wyoming Republican Party's Parliamentarians to assist in determining any procedural or legal issues related to the dispute.

II 2.10. RONR.

In resolving the dispute and holding a non-trial type hearing for mediation or arbitration, the Dispute Resolution Committee shall follow the edition of Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised, in effect at the time the matter is first referred to the Dispute Resolution Committee.

II 2.11. Scheduling.

The Chairman of the Dispute Resolution Committee, in his sole discretion, shall advise the parties as to a proposed schedule for resolving the dispute mediation and arbitration, advise the parties whether it wishes to receive briefs, set dates for the providing of witness information and copies of potential exhibits to opposing parties and the committee, and set the date of mediation and arbitration hearing on the matter. The mediation and arbitration hearings shall not be a formal trial-type hearing format and may be handled in such fashion as the Dispute Resolution Committee shall determine, in its discretion.

II 2.12. Severability.

If any portion of this dispute resolution process shall be determined to be unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, said portion shall be disregarded without affecting any other provision of this dispute resolution process. The remaining portion shall continue to be in full force and effect.

II 2.13. Judicial Recognition.

The final decision of the State Central Committee in Executive Session, issued pursuant to this Section, may, at the discretion of the State Central Committee, be entered as a final judgment upon petition to any court having jurisdiction thereof.

II 2.14. Exclusive Remedy and Constitutional Rights.

The procedures set forth in this Section shall constitute the sole and exclusive remedy for disputes among the persons and entities described herein. Any party who files an action in court in violation of this dispute resolution process shall indemnify the opposing party for reasonable costs and attorney fees incurred in obtaining a dismissal of, or otherwise defending against, such action. As to any legal or equitable action filed after the effective date of this dispute resolution process, the Wyoming Republican Party and the parties to the dispute reaffirm and reassert their rights under the First and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States to resolve internal political party disputes within the Party without interference from any court or from any state or federal governmental entity. The parties shall move any such court to dismiss the action and shall refer the dispute to the procedures provided herein.

II Section 3. Gender

The use of the masculine shall be deemed to include the feminine gender.

II Section 4. Tellers

At least two (2) tellers shall be appointed by the Chairman of a meeting or convention for all forms of voting herein requiring a count of individual votes.

II Section 5. Casting Lots

Whenever the term "casting lots" appears in these bylaws, it means the flipping of coins or the drawing of names to determine the outcome of a vote.

II Section 6. Unit Rule

The unit rule method of voting is defined as:

II 6.1. Permitting a delegate to vote on an issue on behalf of another delegate; or, 6.2. Binding a delegate to vote in any particular manner; or,

II 6.3. Any device which would cast a vote to the delegation as a block rather than pursuant to the wishes of the individual delegates.

II Section 7. Proxy

The term proxy, as used in these Bylaws, shall require a written document, bearing the signature of the qualified voter, specifying the identity of the authorized substitute voter and the specific meeting at which the substitution is authorized.

II 7.1. A proxy shall be presented in proper form to the presiding officer prior to the commencement of the meeting at which it is to be exercised. The proper form shall be in original or electronic form.

II 7.2. Proxies shall not be used in Executive Session, at any convention, or in any election for officers, vetting or endorsement, delegates, or other positions.

II Section 8. Platform

A Platform is the declared policy of a political party and consists of timeless and enduring constitutional conservative principles.

II Section 9. Resolution

A Resolution is defined as a timely, formal expression of opinion, intent, call to action, or an expression of firmness of purpose.

II 9.1. Any proposed resolutions shall be submitted to the secretary in electronic writing 7 (seven) days before regularly scheduled county central committee meetings. The secretary shall forward any proposed resolutions to the county State Central Committee via email at least 5 (five) days before the meeting.

II 9.2. Subject to the approval of the chairman or two-thirds (2/3rds) of the county central committee members present at the time of a meeting, a resolution not meeting the time requirement above may be moved, but every resolution shall be submitted in electronic form to the secretary before a meeting is called to order.

II 9.3 Upon passage of resolutions, the party administration shall post updated resolutions within two weeks of passage.

II Section 10. Substantially uphold

The term “substantially uphold” as used in these bylaws shall be defined as an office holder having a voting record of at least 80% in support of Wyoming Republican Party Platform related legislation or, a challenger to have signed a pledge to support the Wyoming Republican Party Platform-related legislation. Failure to support or commit to support the Wyoming Party Platform shall negate a candidate or elected official from receiving party endorsement, or support, financial or otherwise, at any time, from any level of the party.

II Section 11. Absent

The term “absent” shall apply to any member of the Central Committee who does not attend a meeting and fails to provide prior notice to the Chairman in written or electronic form. Any person providing proper notice shall be considered excused.

II Section 12. Declared Emergencies.

In the event of a declared Federal or State Emergency, all meetings and conventions may be conducted via electronic means in which all participants can simultaneously hear each other and have the opportunity for recognition similar to a regular in-person meeting. Any requirements for ballot votes may be waived, votes may be conducted via email vote or other electronic means as determined by the meeting. Other allowances for electronic meetings may be allowed elsewhere in these rules. Any conflicting language in the rules shall defer to this rule.

II Section 13. Wyoming General Rules for Candidates

II 13.1. Candidate Platform Review. The Republican Party of Wyoming shall make an electronic copy of the most recent Platform available on its website. The County or State Chairman shall distribute a copy of the Platform to each candidate along with all other candidate application papers. The County or State Chairman shall request each non-judicial candidate to indicate whether the candidate agrees, disagrees, or is undecided for each bullet point item of the Party Principles included in the Preamble of the Platform and may include comments if desired. The County or State Chairman shall also request that each non-judicial candidate read the entire Platform and indicate at least eighty percent (80%) of line items from the Platform that the candidate strongly supports. All candidates for non-judicial offices should file the completed Platform Review containing the candidate’s responses at the time of filing for office. Candidates’ responses shall be collected and recorded by the appropriate state or county party and may be published on the appropriate state or county party’s website prior to the primary. If the appropriate state or county party has no website, a copy of the candidate’s responses may be received from the appropriate state or county party.

II 13.2. A candidate must return the candidate’s completed Platform Review and the completed Party funding application to be eligible to receive funds from the State or County party.

II 13.2.a. Candidate Vetting Criteria. The Party shall establish objective criteria for vetting

Republican candidates seeking Party nomination or endorsement. Criteria shall include but are not limited to: commitment to the Wyoming Republican Party Platform, demonstrated loyalty to the Party's principles, legal eligibility to hold office, and for incumbents, their voting record.

II 13.3. Vetting Procedures. The State and County Central Committees shall each create and oversee a Candidate Vetting Committee empowered to review and recommend approval or disapproval of candidates based on established criteria. The Committee shall provide candidates with an opportunity to respond to concerns prior to issuing a recommendation.

II 13.3.a State Central Committee shall vet the top 5 elected officials and the Congressional Delegation.

II 13.3.b County Central Committees may vet all other races on their respective County Ballots.

II 13.4. Public Notification. The Party shall publicly communicate its endorsed candidates and any disciplinary actions undertaken, ensuring transparency to Party members and the electorate.

II Section 14. Formal Endorsement Process –

The Wyoming Republican Party, through its State and County Central Committees, reserves the absolute First Amendment right to endorse, support, oppose, and provide financial assistance to candidates of its choosing at any point in the election cycle, including prior to a primary election. The Party's decisions regarding the use of its private funds and the content of its political speech are core associational activities. Any state law or administrative rule purporting to limit, restrict, or prohibit this private advocacy is hereby declared unconstitutional and void.

II 14.1. Authority for Endorsements. Only the State Central Committee shall have authority to endorse statewide and Federal Republican candidates and County Central Committees shall have the authority to endorse candidates for public office in their counties.

II 14.2. Timing and Eligibility. An endorsement may only be considered for candidates who have filed for a partisan office and are opposed in the Republican primary.

II 14.3. Voting Threshold. Endorsements require a majority affirmative vote of the State or County Central Committee members present and voting.

II 14.4. Restrictions on Endorsement Activities. No Party officer, member, or staff shall use Party resources or hold themselves out as official endorsers unless authorized by this process.

II 14.5. Enforcement. Any violation of this endorsement policy may subject the individual to disciplinary action, including but not limited to, removal from Party office, by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of a quorum of the members elected or appointed at the State or County Central Committee meeting. State Central Committee members who are voted to be removed will be referred to their home counties for removal from their respective offices.

Article III - County Central Committees

III Section 1. Membership.

III 1.1. The Republican Central Committee of each County shall consist of the properly elected or appointed Republican Precinct Committeemen and Committeewomen in a County who shall hold office for a term of two (2) years or until their successors have been properly elected or appointed. Each precinct shall elect one (1) Committeeman and one (1) Committeewoman for each two hundred fifty (250) votes or major fraction thereof cast for the Republican candidate for U.S. Representative in the last general election but provided no precinct shall be entitled to less than one (1) Precinct Committeeman and one (1) Precinct Committeewoman. Duly elected officers shall be considered Members of the County Central Committee for all purposes through the end of their term, or until their successor is elected, or appointed and ratified.

III 1.2. Precinct Committeemen and Committeewomen shall be electors registered in the Republican Party and reside in the precinct.

III 1.2.a. To be a Precinct Committeewoman, an individual must be a female. Defined as: "Female" - a person whose biological reproductive system is developed to produce ova and/or who exhibits XX chromosomes and does not exhibit a Y chromosome.

III 1.2.b. To be a Precinct Committeeman, an individual must be a male. Defined as: "Male" - a person whose biological reproductive system is developed to fertilize the ova of a female and/or who exhibits XY chromosomes or exhibits a Y chromosome.

III 1.3. If a precinct boundary line is changed for any reason the County Commissioners shall determine the number of Precinct Committeemen and Committeewomen to which the affected precinct is entitled.

III 1.4. All County Central Committee members in office on the date that notice of a County Central Committee meeting is published shall be allowed to vote at the meeting.

III 1.5. The term of office for all precinct committeemen and committeewomen shall be two (2) years and shall begin on the first Monday in January of the year following their election.

III 1.6. All elected officers in the positions of Chairman, Vice Chairman, State Committeeman, State Committeewoman, Secretary, and Treasurer shall be permitted to vote as full members of the County Central Committee if they are not precinct committee representatives. No person may vote more than once with the exception of proxy votes regardless of how many positions they hold. The chair may vote on all matters decided by a secret ballot vote or in cases where his vote will alter the outcome.

III 1.6.a. Any person running for Chairman, Vice Chairman, State Committeeman, State Committeewoman, Secretary or Treasurer shall be a registered Republican of January 1 of the odd number years before their election and a resident of the County.

III 1.7. The County Central Committees shall be composed of such members, selected in such a manner, as the Party shall determine in these Bylaws. The Party is not bound by any state statutory formula for committee composition, apportionment, or member qualifications.

III Section 2. Meetings.

The County Central Committee of each county shall meet as follows:

III 2.1. During the month of January of each odd numbered year after the County Chairman has received notice from the County Clerk that all the County Central Committee members have been certified elected, for the purpose of organization. The meeting shall be held at the time and place determined by the County Chairman.

III 2.2. During the month of March of each odd numbered year at the County seat to elect its officers. The County Chairman shall publish a notice of the March meeting of the central committee not less than ten (10) days before this meeting.

III 2.3. Not less than once a fiscal quarter to conduct regular business of the county in addition to any other times and places as may be determined by the County Chairman or the County Executive Committee.

III 2.3.a. The County Chairman shall publish a notice of all other meetings of the County Central Committee in accordance with state statute.

III 2.3.b. Meetings of the County Central Committee may be called by the County Chairman or upon written request of twenty five percent (25%) of the County Central Committee members.

III 2.3.c. In the event of a declared Federal or State Emergency, all meetings and conventions may be conducted via electronic means in which all participants can simultaneously hear each other and have the opportunity for recognition similar to a regular in-person meeting. Any requirements for ballot votes may be waived, votes may be conducted via email vote or other electronic means as determined by the meeting. Other allowances for electronic meetings may be allowed elsewhere in these rules. Any conflicting language in the rules shall defer to this rule.

III 2.3.d. The County Executive Committee may decide that any meeting of the County Central Committee may be held by video or telephone conference in the event of a declared county or state emergency. County Central Committee meetings may permit member attendance by video or telephone conference for reasons of distance, disability, or weather.

III 2.4. All meetings must be open to the public, except for provisions of executive session in the Parliamentary Authority.

III Section 3. Powers.

The County Central Committee shall exercise those powers conferred upon it by law and state and County Bylaws. The County Central Committee is empowered to determine policy, to make rules, to settle disputes, and to perform all functions necessary to further and protect the interests of the Wyoming Republican Party as determined by the delegates seated at the State Convention, the party platform, or by the members of the State Central Committee whenever the Convention is not in session.

III Section 4. Quorum.

Those members of the County Central Committee attending, either in person or by proxy, a properly called meeting of the County Central Committee shall constitute a quorum and be entitled to vote on the issues before the assembly.

III Section 5. County Party Vacancies.

III 5.1. A vacancy in the County Central Committee or among its officers shall occur in case of death, resignation, removal of residence from the precinct or county, inability to act, change of party affiliation, conviction of a felony, loss of registration as a member of the electorate, vacation of seat, failure to elect at a regularly scheduled election, or to fulfill the standard obligations of a Precinct Committeeperson as determined by the County Central Committee. If a member loses their voter registration due to a routine purge, the County Chairman may encourage them to re-register immediately without forfeiting their position

III 5.2 Unless otherwise provided by County Bylaws, when a precinct person absents himself without a notice to the county chairman or his designee from three (3) meetings in a 365 day period that person shall be considered to have vacated his seat at the conclusion of the third meeting with the exception of any special meetings called in accordance with Article III section 2.3.b of these bylaws.

III 5.3. A vacancy in the office of Precinct Committeeman or Precinct Committeewoman shall be filled by appointment of a registered Republican resident in the precinct in which the vacancy exists. This appointment is made by the County Executive Committee or as provided by the County Bylaws. Such appointments shall be put before the next meeting of the County Central Committee for ratification. The replacements shall serve until the next regular election for Precinct Committeeman or Precinct Committeewoman and shall be entitled to vote on all issues coming before the County Central Committee.

III 5.4. The County Chairman shall submit the name of the new Precinct Person to the State Party and the County Clerk within fifteen (15) days of their appointment.

III 5.5. Unless otherwise provided by County Bylaws, the Vice Chairman shall become the County Chairman in the event of a vacancy in the office of County Chairman

III 5.6. Unless otherwise provided by County Bylaws, the County Central Committee shall elect by secret ballot a successor to fill a vacancy in the office of County Vice Chairman within thirty (30) days of the vacancy.

III 5.7. Unless otherwise provided by County Bylaws the County Central Committee may elect successors to fill vacancies in the office of County Secretary or County Treasurer within thirty (30) days of the vacancy. Such appointment(s) shall be put before the next meeting of the County Central Committee for ratification.

III 5.8 A vacancy in the office of State Committeeman or State Committeewoman shall be filled by election by the County Central Committee within thirty (30) days of the vacancy.

III Section 6. Officers and Terms of Office.

III 6.1. The County Chairman, Vice Chairman, State Committeeman, State Committeewoman, County Secretary and County Treasurer shall be elected as full voting members of the county central committee by the members of the County Central Committee at its March meeting in the odd numbered years to serve for a term of two (2) years. The County Chairman shall, within one (1) week, notify the State Chairman in writing of the names and addresses and contact information of persons elected to the offices of County Chairman, State Committeeman and State Committeewoman.

III 6.2. None of the foregoing officers, committee chairmen or committee members need be members of the County Central Committee, but each must be registered in the Party and a resident in the County.

III 6.3. Any county officer of the County Republican Party may be removed for cause, as determined by the county central committee, from their position by a vote of two thirds (2/3) majority of the County Central Committee represented at a properly called meeting.

III Section 7. Duties of Officers

III 7.1 County Chairman. In addition to the duties with which he is charged by statute, the County Chairman shall be the chief executive officer of the County Republican Party in his County and shall preside over all meetings of the County Executive Committee, County Convention, and County Central Committee. He shall carry out policies established by the County Central Committee and shall have all general powers of administration customarily vested in the office of Chairman.

III 7.2 County Vice Chairman. The County Vice Chairman shall assist the County Chairman in the duties of his office. He shall perform other duties as assigned to him by the County Chairman. He shall perform the duties and exercise the powers of the County Chairman during the County Chairman's absence or disability.

III 7.3. County Secretary. The County Secretary shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the County Central Committee, County Convention, and County Executive Committee and shall serve on the County Credentials Committee. Other responsibilities and duties of the County Secretary are outlined in the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised. Minutes shall be provided to any member of the County Central Committee upon request.

III 7.4. County Treasurer. The County Treasurer shall be responsible for money received and disbursed by the County Republican Party and shall provide a current report at all regular County Central Committee meetings.

III 7.5. State Committeeman and State Committeewoman:

III 7.5.1. To be a State Committeewoman, an individual must be a female. Defined as:
"Female" - a person whose biological reproductive system is developed to produce ova and/or who exhibits XX chromosomes and does not exhibit a Y chromosome.

III 7.5.2. To be a State Committeeman, an individual must be a male. Defined as: "Male" - a person whose biological reproductive system is developed to fertilize the ova of a female and/or who exhibits XY chromosomes or exhibits a Y chromosome.

III Section 8. County Committee and Executive Committee

III 8.1. Each County Central Committee may select an Executive Committee and other committees and sub-committees as it from time to time may determine as proper, and it may delegate any of its powers to such a committee or subcommittees.

III 8.2. The County Executive Committee shall consist of the elected and appointed officers of the County Central Committee and other persons as provided by the County Bylaws. Such appointment(s) shall be put before the next meeting of the County Central Committee for ratification.

III 8.3. The County Executive Committee shall have the following powers:

III 8.3.a. To fill vacancies in the office of Precinct Committeeman and Precinct Committeewoman, and delegates and alternates to the National Convention unless otherwise provided by the County Bylaws.

III 8.3.b. To ratify emergency actions taken by the County Chairman.

III 8.3.c. To further and protect the interests of the Wyoming Republican Party as determined by the delegates seated at the State Convention, or as determined by the party platform, or by the members of the State Central Committee whenever the Convention is not in session.

III Section 9. Voting.

III 9.1. Only properly elected, selected, or appointed and ratified Precinct Committeemen and Precinct Committeewomen, their proxies, and elected officers shall be entitled to vote at Central Committee meetings and shall have full voting powers in elections even though they may not have been elected or appointed as precinct committee members. All County Central Committee members and officers in office on the date the notice of a County Central Committee meeting is published shall be allowed to vote at the meeting.

III 9.2. The County Executive Committee shall consist of the elected and appointed officers of the Central Committee. Only Executive Committee members who have been elected or ratified by the County Central Committee shall have voting privileges. The County Executive Committee may also include up to eight (8) At-Large Members appointed by the County Executive Committee. At-Large Members shall be non-voting members. County Executive Committee Members may be invited to attend meetings by telephone or by video conferencing platform. County Executive Committee Members cannot, however, participate by e-mail, text message or social media stream.

III 9.3. In the event the County Chairman is also a Precinct Committeeman or Precinct Committeewoman, shall be entitled to vote as a Precinct Committeeman or Precinct Committeewoman.

III 9.4. All elected officers in the positions of Chair, Vice Chair, State Committeeman, State Committeewoman, Secretary, and Treasurer shall be permitted to vote if they are not Precinct Committee representatives. No person may vote more than once, with the exception of proxy votes, regardless of how many positions they hold. The chair may vote on all matters decided by a secret ballot vote or in cases where his vote will alter the outcome.

III 9.5. All Precinct Committee members shall declare any potential conflict of interests to the Chairman on any Central Committee votes.

III Section 10. Conduct of County Central Committee Meetings.

III 10.1. Presiding Officer. The County Chairman shall preside over all meetings of the County Central Committee.

III 10.2. Voting by Chairman. If two (2) consecutive tie votes on a question occur, the County Chairman shall, at his discretion, exercise his right to vote as Chairman as provided by the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised to break the tie or to decide the vote casting lots.

III 10.3. County Central Committee Meetings will be run according to the County Bylaws or, when the bylaws do not apply, according to the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised.

III Section 11. Proxy Votes.

III 11.1. Vote by proxy may be allowed at a meeting of the County Central Committee. A person holding a proxy for an absent Precinct Committeeman or Precinct Committeewoman must be a resident of the same precinct as the member he represents and be a registered Republican. No person shall be allowed to vote more than two (2) proxies.

III 11.2. A signed proxy shall be deemed valid if delivered to the Chairman or the Secretary or in person and the sender can be clearly identified as a qualified voting member of the body.

III Section 12. County Shares.

III 12.1. County shares are a mandatory payment to the State Party biennially to defer the costs of operations including data production, informational support, networking, and other work produced by the State Party in support of County Party function and activity. County parties that intentionally fail to pay, as determined by the State Executive Committee, at least half of their County Shares, by mid-term will negate a county party from receiving the products, services, and support of the state party for the duration of the following biennium or until all past shares are paid in full. Delegates to the State Convention will be reduced in proportion to the percentage of shares unpaid.

III 12.2. County shares shall be used for the expenses of the state party, including but not limited to, informational products for managing issues, building rental fees for meetings, and executive director expenses, and may not be used for candidate funding or campaign expenses.

III 12.3. The Wyoming State Party Chairman may enter into negotiations with any county in arrears in their shares in an effort to bring them current. Any agreement shall be ratified by the State Central Committee.

III 12.2. County shares are calculated as a baseline of $1,000 per county plus a pro-rated amount of the Biennial Operational Budget based upon the percentage of registered Republicans as of January 1st of each odd-numbered year in each county.

III Section 13. County parties must adopt and follow the language of this article verbatim. County parties are authorized to add processes to, but not award itself additional powers, nor take away from, or contradict, the specific language of this article.

Article IV - County Convention

IV Section 1. Membership.

IV 1.1. Delegates to the County Convention shall be the members of the County Central Committee and those chosen by caucuses of the several precincts within each County. All County Convention Delegates and Alternates shall at the time of the call for the County Convention be residents of the precinct they represent and registered Republicans.

IV 1.2. If the prescribed number of Delegates and Alternates is not duly elected by Precinct Caucuses in certain precinct(s), the County Chairman with approval of the majority of the County Executive Committee is authorized to appoint the prescribed number of Delegates and Alternates from the precinct(s) to the County Convention. The County Chairman shall seek suggestions for such appointments from the Caucus Chairman.

IV 1.3. Each Precinct Caucus may also choose alternate Delegates equal in number to its allotted Delegates and shall designate the priority in which the Alternates shall replace absent Delegates.

IV 1.4. If Precinct Committeeman or Committeewoman vacancies exist at the time of the Precinct Caucus, the Precinct Caucus may elect Delegates equal in number to the vacancies.

IV Section 2. Precinct Caucus.

IV 2.1. Precinct Caucuses shall be held not less than ten (10) days prior to the County Convention.

IV 2.2. The County Chairman shall issue the call for the Precinct Caucuses by publishing a notice of the number of Delegates to be selected from each precinct, the date, time, and place for each caucus, by any means, physical or electronic, reasonably calculated to give actual notice to the electors in the county not less than ten (10) days prior to the Precinct Caucuses.

IV 2.3. Several Precinct Caucuses may be held in a single location. All Republicans who have registered within the precinct at the dates of the call of the Precinct Caucus shall be entitled to participate and vote at the Precinct Caucus.

IV 2.4. Proof of such residence and registration shall be by the County Clerk's, or the Secretary of State's voter list as of the date of the call of the precinct caucus.

IV Section 3. Apportionment of Precinct Delegates to County Convention.

IV 3.1. The County Executive Committee shall designate the total number of delegates to be elected to the County Convention. The minimum number shall equal the total number of duly elected Precinct Committeemen and Precinct Committeewomen across all precincts, plus one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of that total (i.e., for every two precinct committee members, one additional delegate slot).

IV 3.2. The Delegates to which each precinct shall be entitled at the County Convention shall be determined, as nearly as possible, in proportion to the total number of registered Republicans in each precinct as of January 1st in even-numbered years.

IV 3.3. Each precinct shall be entitled to minimum Delegates.

IV Section 4. Conduct of Precinct Caucuses.

IV 4.1. Either a Precinct Committeeman or Precinct Committeewoman in attendance at the Precinct Caucus shall be elected Caucus Chairman-by those in attendance and qualified to vote in that precinct.

IV 4.2. In the event there is neither a Precinct Committeeman nor a Precinct Committeewoman in attendance, those assembled and qualified to vote shall elect from among them a person to serve as Caucus Chairman.

IV 4.3. The Caucus Chairman shall take nominations of qualified Republicans residing within the precinct to be Delegates or Alternates to the County Convention and shall call for any Resolutions, Platform planks or County or State Bylaw changes to come before the caucus.

IV 4.4. The election of Delegates and Alternates shall be by secret ballot, if desired by anyone in attendance at the Precinct Caucus.

IV 4.5. The Caucus Chairman shall, within the next five (5) days after the date the caucus is held, certify in writing to the County Chairman the names of those elected Delegates and Alternates to the County Convention from that precinct.

IV Section 5. Meeting.

The State Central Committee shall determine the date(s) of the County Conventions consistent with state statutes and the Rules of the Republican National Committee.

IV Section 6. Notice of Meeting.

Notice of the County Convention shall be given by publishing, a notice by any means, physical or electronic, reasonably calculated to give actual notice to the electors in the county, no later than fifteen (15) days prior to the County Convention.

IV Section 7. Powers.

IV 7.1. The Delegates to a County Convention shall have, but not be limited to, the following powers:

IV 7.1.a. To adopt or amend the Bylaws of the County Party.

IV 7.1.b. To elect delegates and alternates to the Republican National Convention as provided by Article VI, Section 8 of the Wyoming Republican Party.

IV 7.1.c. To adopt Resolutions and Platform planks which shall be submitted to the State Convention.

IV 7.1.d. To propose changes to the State Party Bylaws, which shall be submitted to the State Convention.

IV Section 8. Conduct of County Convention.

IV 8.1. Presiding Officer. The County Chairman properly elected at the prior March meeting of the County Central Committee, his successor, or his designee, shall serve as Chairman of the County Convention. If two (2) consecutive tie votes on a question occur, the County Chairman, at his discretion, shall either vote to break the tie or decide the vote by casting lots, whether or not he is a Delegate to the County Convention.

IV 8.2. Quorum. Those minimum required delegates attending a properly called County Convention shall constitute a quorum.

IV 8.3. Proxy Votes. Vote by proxy shall not be allowed at a County Convention.

IV 8.4. Unit Rule. The unit rule method of voting shall not be adopted by any County Convention.

IV Section 9. Committees.

IV 9.1. Credentials Committee shall act at the County Convention. A Bylaws Committee, Platform Committee, Resolutions Committee, Nominating Committee and other committees as provided by County Bylaws may act at the County Convention. The powers and duties of committees, if formed, shall be as follows:

IV 9.1.a. Credentials. The Credentials Committee shall consist of the County Secretary and other members appointed by the County Chairman. The committee shall be responsible for examining and certifying credentials of all Delegates and Alternates to the County Convention.

IV 9.1.b. Bylaws. The Bylaws Committee, if formed, shall consist of members appointed by the County Chairman. The Committee shall meet at least one (1) week prior to the County Convention or as provided by County Bylaws to draft and propose revisions to the County and/or State Bylaws to be presented to the County Convention. However, nothing shall preclude any Delegate from submitting additional County or State Bylaw revisions from the floor, in writing, at the County Convention.

IV 9.1.c. Platform. The Platform Committee, if formed, shall consist of members appointed by the County Chairman. The Committee shall meet at least one (1) week prior to the County Convention or as provided by County Bylaws, to draft platform proposals pertaining to timeless principles of the Republican Party to be presented to the County Convention. However, nothing shall preclude any Delegate from submitting additional platform proposals from the floor, in writing, at the County Convention.

IV 9.1.d. Resolutions. The Resolutions Committee, if formed, shall consist of members appointed by the County Chairman. The committee shall meet at least one (1) week prior to the County Convention or as provided by County Bylaws. The Committee shall be responsible for drafting and revising resolutions, acting on specific issues of the day, governed by the principles articulated in the Party Platform to be presented to the County Convention. However, nothing shall preclude any Delegate from submitting additional resolutions from the floor, in writing, at the County Convention.

IV 9.1.e. Nominating. The Nominating Committee, if formed, shall consist of members appointed by the County Chairman. The committee shall meet at least one (1) week prior to the County Convention or as provided by County Bylaws, to prepare a slate of nominations for Delegates and Alternates to the State Convention to be presented to the County Convention. In any year in which the Republican National Convention will be called, the committee may, at its meeting prior to the County Convention, prepare a slate of nominations for Delegates and/or Alternates to the Republican National Convention (as designated by Article VI, Section 8 of these Bylaws) to be presented to the County Convention. However, nothing shall preclude any Delegate from submitting additional qualified nominations from the floor at the County Convention. All names submitted by the Nominating Committee must be voted on by secret ballot along with any other nominations from the floor.

IV 9.2. Platform amendments, Resolutions, and Bylaws amendments adopted at the County Conventions shall be submitted to the Executive Director of the State Party no later than thirty days prior to the State Convention. Failure to submit the adopted Platform and Bylaws amendments, and Resolutions by this deadline may result in those not being considered by State Convention Committees.

IV Section 10. Order of Business

IV 10.1. The order of business at the County Republican Convention shall be as follows:

IV 10.1.a. Call to order by the County Chair

IV 10.1.b. Prayer

IV 10.1.c. Pledge of Allegiance

IV 10.1.d. Report of the Credentials Committee

IV 10.1.e. Report of the Bylaws Committee

IV 10.1.f. Report of the Platform Committee

IV 10.1.g. Report of the Resolutions Committee

IV 10.1.h. Report of the Nominating Committee

IV 10.1.i. Elections

IV 10.1.j. Other Business

IV 10.1.k. Adjournment

IV 10.2. After the Convention is convened, and the adoption of the Credentials Committee Report, the order of business may be changed by a majority vote of the Delegates.

IV Section 11. Election of Delegates to the State Convention

IV 11.1. Delegates to the State Convention shall be elected at the County Convention. All County Chairmen, State Committeemen and State Committeewomen are automatically delegates to the State Convention. Each County Convention shall also elect Alternate Delegates equal in number to its allotted Delegates and shall designate the priority in which the Alternates shall replace absent Delegates. Each Delegate and Alternate shall be a resident of the County represented and shall be registered Republicans as of the date of the call for the County Convention.

IV 11.1.a. Election of delegates is determined by the highest number of votes each individual receives by secret ballot. Alternates are then elected in like manner on a separate ballot.

IV 11.1.b Nominations for both delegates and alternates must be allowed from the floor.

IV 11.1.c The names of the Delegates and Alternates and the priority of the Alternates shall be certified and submitted by each County Chairman to the State Chairman not later than thirty (30) calendar days before the State Convention.

IV 11.1.d. Each County must appoint a delegate to serve as Delegation Chairman who will serve as the manager of their county delegation on the convention floor for the purpose of voting and other matters as requested by the Convention Chairman.

IV Section 12. Roll Call Votes.

IV 12.1. A roll call vote (“Yeas” and “Nays”) or a secret ballot vote upon any question presented at the County Convention may be ordered by the County Chairman or can be compelled by a majority vote of the Delegates.

IV 12.2. A request for a roll call vote or a secret ballot vote must be sought before the question is first voted upon. The preceding in no way interferes with the right of a Delegate to request a standing vote on questions presented to the County Convention.

IV Section 13. County parties must adopt and follow the language of this article. County parties are authorized to add processes to, but not award itself additional powers, nor take away from, or contradict, the specific language of this article.

ARTICLE V – Ratification and Amendments

V 1.1 Ratification

These Bylaws, upon adoption by a majority vote of the Delegates seated at the Park County Republican Convention, or amended only by a two-thirds (2/3's) vote of the number of elected / appointed PCCC members seated at a regularly called meeting shall repeal and replace all Bylaws that preceded them and shall be binding upon adjournment of the convention or meeting at which they are adopted.

V 1.2 Amendments.

V 1.2.a. These Bylaws may be repealed or amended only by a two- thirds (2/3's) vote of the number of elected / appointed PCCC members seated at a regularly called meeting. (WSS 22-4-119(a)) All proposed bylaw amendments shall be emailed to (or mailed to those without email) each member at least (7) seven days prior to the regularly called meeting.

V 1.2.b. At convention, these Bylaws may be repealed or amended only by a majority of the Delegates seated to the Park County Convention.

V 1.2.c. Amendments to these Bylaws shall become effective upon adjournment of the convention or the meeting at which the amendments were approved.

V 1.2.d. All amendments shall be certified by the County Party Chairman and County Party Secretary and shall be filed with the County Clerk of Park County within thirty (30) days after adjournment of the County Convention or the meeting. Furthermore, a copy shall be transmitted to the Executive Director of the Wyoming State Republican Party.

ARTICLE VI - Severability

These bylaws are severable, and if any portions are declared void, all other portions remain binding and effective.

ARTICLE VII - Certification

We do hereby certify that we are respectively the County Chairman and County Party Secretary of the Park County Republican Party. It is further certified that the foregoing is a true and correct copy of the Bylaws of the Park County Wyoming Republican Party, adopted at a properly called meeting of the Park County Republican Party held in Cody, Wyoming on the 4th day of June 2026, and as amended.
